Maya Angelou

Parliamentarian, Ella Nichols

- Assembly Announcement: There will be an online assembly from 12:45 - 1:35 with Mr Gains from NASA. This is a BSU assembly.

Sergeant at Arms, Nathan Kim

- Pi Store Updates: There are a lot of out of stock or expired items in pi store, so there will be a Sams run out soon to purchase more items for pi store. Sign ups to run pi store will come out during the next meeting.

Secretary, Caroline Nelson

- Goody Bags: During this week I will be setting up a Sams run and purchasing the goody bag items on amazon.
- Advisory Updates: Advisory started this week! Over the next two weeks I will be meeting with teachers to get feedback on how the meetings went and how to improve them.

- Test Prep Sessions: The ACT is next Tuesday, so we want to host a practice session this weekend. It will either be held Saturday afternoon or Sunday morning. The SGA voted for Sunday from 8-12 and this will be passes along to Dr Frye.
- Teacher Appreciation: As soon as the budget is finalized I will purchase gift baskets for the teachers. They will either consist of cookies, truffles, or various items depending on the budget allotment.

Treasurer, Marie Naylor

- General Updates: The SGA budget will be finalized by next week. Club forms will be sent out during this week and an announcement will be made during assembly. The Parent association will renovate the TV room next fall, so now the CLC has more budget open. If anyone has ideas they should let them know! Remember to turn in PO forms and Sams runs a week before the actual event.

Vice President, Joy Buchi

- AC Updates: Dr Hoyle has set up events for the next two weeks and AC will be helping out. They will also host dodgeball Friday after school. Prom still needs a venue and they will keep us posted.

President, May Jung

- TED Talks: The TED talks are starting soon! Elbread made a great post and Sanju is getting a schedule ready. The new mural committee was chosen and we are excited about this.

Sponsors

- Mrs McMaken : Mr Barry is out so she is here to help with anything we need. Elections will take place in the fall so that SGA officers can participate in JBLA, incomings can vote, and so that students can maximize the efficiencies of their summers. This also lets students evaluate how they want to spend their time in the next year. Elbread asks if this will be a permanent change but we will have to see how it plays out this next year before determining that.
