

This is an open call for submissions to our annual literary magazine, Oculus. Oculus is a print magazine created by and for ASMS students. We will be taking submissions throughout winter term until January 15th.

The categories for submission are Art, Prose, and Poetry. Content in the Art category includes everything from photography, paintings, 3-D work such as sculptures, etc. If you are unable to procure a high quality JPEG image of your work by yourself, Oculus staff is available to photograph your work. The Prose category includes short stories (1-2 pages in length usually), and nonfiction essays. Lastly, the Poetry category includes, of course, poems. You may include multiple poems (maximum of three) that belong in a series. Throughout every category, there is no limit to the amount of work you may submit. Submitted work will not be guaranteed a place in the magazine. Each submission will be evaluated by multiple people readers a blind review process.

Please submit your work to asmsoculusasms@gmail.com attached as either high quality JPEG images, PDF documents, or Word files. Do not include your name or other identifying information on the actual submitted work. However, on the email subject line, please include your name, the phrase "Oculus 2019 Submission," and the category you are submitting to: Art, Poetry, or Prose. Within the body of the email, please again include your name, category of submission: Art, Poetry, or Prose, and whether you would like your submission to remain anonymous if published. Remember that the submission deadline is January 15. We look forward to reviewing your work.
