Opening Statements

Hello, everyone! The agenda was distributed. Let's move to the reports from our officers.

Parliamentarian, Liana Jayasena

Winston Churchill, "Success is stumbling from failure to failure with no loss of enthusiasm." Liana said we may have faced many setbacks and have faced many hardships. But that is fine because we are not perfect. We should also learn how to take breaks so that we can be stronger.

Assembly Updates:

BSU Culture Assembly on 2.25.24

Sergeant at Arms, Novita Whillock

Upcoming events include tote bag painting, easter egg hunt, easter basket making, among us in real life, casino night, clay sculpting, bracelet making, Mardi Gras mask decorating, and a slime event.

Secretary, Jacob Kim

Treasurer, Derek Ricafort

Through Budget Reallocation Derek was able to pull $280 from Club Life Committee and put it into Mega Musical Chairs. $50 dollars from Asian American Association, $100 from Biology Club, and $130 from Desi Club. Please email Derek and/or Jeeah a file for PO forms. Please give the PO forms to the SGA advisors at least 2 weeks before the deadline or else they will not be processed.

Vice President, Bake Elenitoba-Johnson

Final PO forms will be finalized today for Prom. Because of limited time Bake asks the rest of SGA to come help set up from Prom. Summerfest will be on April 12th and will be a combination of culture fest and additional events. Faculty and staff will be invited, and the pool will be opened after the event as well.

President, Jeeah Kim

Katie Beth proposes the Mega Musical Chairs theme as “Patriotic”. Many fundraising events were suggested like costume contest, banana boat race, manual dunk tank, a bake sale, facepainting, and American History trivia. Novita suggests a “Western” theme. There was a vote for patriotic, American West, and Wild West. There were 6 votes for the patriotic, 13 for the American West, and 2 for the Wild West. The theme for Mega Musical Chairs will be American West but the students are willing to dress up however they would please. Montessori will resume the week after Mardi Gras break.

SGA Advisors, Mr. Barry and Ms. Millender

The SGA closet has a lot of Student Affairs items in there. Ms. Millender would like to create sub-committees responsible for keeping the SGA closet clean each month. The officers will create a system to manage the sub-committees.

Closing Remarks / Open Floor

Jeeah adjourns this meeting.
